Code of Conduct:

- Uphold the standing of the profession and conduct themselves in such a manner as not to bring the profession into disrepute
- At all times be strictly professional in their approach to the public, business colleagues and all those whom they meet in their day to day business activities
- Maintain professional competence and skills in respect of all developments and legislation applicable to this profession (CPD)
- Perform their duties and observe their responsibilities to their employers, staff and the public with integrity, courtesy and consideration
- Take all reasonable steps to ensure that work undertaken by staff under their control is performed with integrity, courtesy and consideration
- Not incur personal gain through abuse of their professional position
- Work within the framework of the law at all times, particularly relating to the operation of the organisation with which they are connected
- Respect the confidentiality of any information given by customers, employers, staff and suppliers
- Not directly, indirectly or unfairly injure the reputation of another accredited individual
- Encourage staff under their control to raise their educational standards and skill through continuing professional development (CPD)

Section Six – Declaration:

I hereby apply for inclusion on the Professional Register. I confirm that the information supplied in support of my application is correct, that I have not been convicted of any offence relating to my employment in the motor industry, and that nothing has been withheld that would affect my suitability for inclusion.

I accept the above Code of Conduct as a condition of my Professional Registration.

I consent to this information being collated, stored and released for the purposes of the Professional Register, both in written and electronic format. This will be done in line with the principles of the Data Protection Act 1998.
