

Technical Bulletin.

HUB DISTORTION

For vehicles fitted with a wheel hub that has a recess on the disc mounting surface.

It is vitally important when mounting the disc that the correct torque setting is used for the disc location screw. Over torquing the disc location screw can distort the brake disc causing lateral run out. Failure to use the correct torque setting can cause brake judder due to the distortion of the disc.

Example of hub with recess

